

Singles' Dating Convention
Something fun & exciting to do
Labor Day Weekend

Special discount offer to friends
Only $39 includes all of the following:

Friday Night's Show, September 4th - 8:00pm:

You won't believe what you see at Clay Wooten's amazing comedy hypnosis show. This is a Headline act in Las Vegas with tickets starting at $75/person. We've made a special deal with our friend Clay to give free entry to Convention ticket holders.

The Main Event Saturday - 11:00am - 7:00pm:

- Meet more singles in a day than you normally would in a year.
- Guided ice breakers & games help you open conversations and make connections without feeling awkward or left out. Much easier than going to clubs and hoping for the best.
- Meet real people. Avoid "blind date shock" that occurs with so many online liaisons. Safe for the ladies, honest for everyone.
- Expert Speakers on topics that give men and women insight into the mysteries of one another, setting up better relationships.
- Just plain fun. No risk, no pressure. On stage entertainment throughout the day. Lots of give-a-ways.

Special Bonus:

By special arrangement, Convention attendees will be given FREE passes to the "Life Enrichment Bootcamp". Normal charge for this 4 day event is $200.

Unprecedented Guarantee:

If you are not 100% satisfied that Friday's show is worth the entire admission price, we'll refund your money, no questions asked, and you can still attend the convention.
